THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, safer, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions: when the stomach is at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are CURED, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is much and prevent the food from rising and souring. sufficient to relieve the stomach. Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare. night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

Only one dose taken at meal will cure Dyspepsia. One dose often repeated will always remove obstruction of the MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA. Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

☞ One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by WORMS in children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cures Dropsy by exciting the absorbents to throw off the superfluous water. We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the month with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. Of a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make this request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it: but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate. Phila.

Cochocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be. I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly,

S. T. STOCKMAN.

Wayland, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

THE GAMBLER'S WIFE.

Dark is the night! How dark! No light! No fire!
Cold on the hearth, the last faint spark expire!
Shivering, she watches, by the cradle side,
For him, who pledged her love—last year a bride!

"Hark! 'tis his footstep! No!—'Tis past!—'Tis gone!
Tick!—Tick!—How wearily the time crawls on!
Why should he leave me thus?—He once was kind!
And I believed 't would last!—How mad!—How blind!

"Rest thee, my babe!—Rest on!—'Tis hunger's cry!
Sleep!—For there is no food!—The font is dry!
My heart must break! And thou! The clock strikes one.

"Hush! 'tis the door-box! Yes! he's there! he's there!
For this!—for this he leaves me to despair!
Leaves love! leaves truth! his wife! his child! for what!
The wanton's smile—the villian—and the sot!

Yet I'll not curse him. No! 'tis all in vain!
'Tis long to wait, but sure he'll come again!
And I could starve, and bless him but for you,
My child!—his child! On, fiend!" the clock strikes two.

"Hark! How the sign-board creaks! The blast howls by.
Moan! moan! A dirge swells through the cloudy sky!
Ha! 'tis his knock! he comes! he comes once more!
'Tis but the lattice flaps! Thy hope is o'er!

"Can he desert us thus! He knows I stay
Night after night, in loneliness, to pray
For his return—and yet he sees no tear!
No! no! It cannot be! He will be here!

"Nestle more closely, dear one, to my heart!
Thou'rt cold! Thou'rt freezing! But we will not part!
Husband!—I die!—Father!—It is not he!
Oh, God! protect my child!" The clock strikes three.

They're gone, they're gone! the glimmering spark hath fled!
The wife and child are numbered with the dead.
On the cold earth, outstretched in solemn rest,
The babe lay frozen on its mother's breast!
The gambler came at last—but all was o'er—
Dead silence reign'd. The clock struck four!

Select Miscellany.

ARKANSAS TRAVELER.

In the early settlement of Arkansas, a traveler, after riding some eight or ten miles without meeting a human being or seeing a human habitation, came at length, by a sudden turn of the wood-road, to a miserable 'shanty,' the centre of a small clearing in what had originally been a 'black-jack thicket,' whence the only sound that proceeds is the discordant music of a broken-winded fiddle, from the troubled bowels of which the occupant is laboriously extorting the monotonous tune known as 'The Arkansas or Ruckensack Traveler.' Our traveler rides up within a few feet of the door, which was once the bed frame of a cart body, now covered with bear-skins, and hung upon two big wooden hinges. After much shouting, the inmate appears, fiddle in hand, and evidently 'wrathy' at being interrupted in the exercise of his art. The following colloquy ensues, the indefatigable fiddler still playing the first strain of the 'Arkansas Traveler;' which, in fact, he continues at sudden intervals until the dialogue, as will be seen, is brought to an unexpected conclusion. If this be not 'seeking knowledge under difficulties,' we should like to know what might be legitimately so considered.

Traveler.—Friend, can I find accomodations for the night with you?

Arkansas Artist.—No sir, nary commodation.

Traveler.—My dear sir, I have already traveled thirty miles to-day, and neither myself nor my horse has had a mouthful to eat; why can't you accommodate me for to-night?

Ark. Artist.—Just 'cause it can't be did. We're plum out of everything to eat in the house. Bill's gone to mill with the last nubbin of corn on these premises, and it'll be nigh onto the shank of tomorrow evening afore he comes home, unless somethin uncommon happens.

Traveler.—You surely have something that I can feed to my horse; even a few potatoes would be better than no food.

Ark. Artist.—Stranger, our eatin roots gin out about a week ago; so your chance is slim thar.

Traveler.—But, my friend, I must remain with you, any way. I can't go any further, whether I obtain anything to eat or not. You certainly will allow me the shelter of your roof?

Ark. Artist.—It can't be did, old hoss. You see, we've got only one dried hide on the premises, and me and the old woman occupies that; so what's your chance?

Traveler.—Allow me to hitch my horse to that persimmon tree, and with my saddle and blanket I'll make a bed in the fence corner.

Ark. Artist.—Hitch your horse to that 'simmon tree—in a horn! Why, you must be a nateral fool, strang r! Don't you see that's me and the old woman's only chance for 'simmon beer in the fall of the year? If your hoss is so tarnal hungry as you say he is, he'd girdle it as high up as he could reach afore mornin. Hitch your hoss to that tree! I 'spect not. No, no, stranger, you don't come nary such a dodge as that!

Our traveler, seeing that he had an original to deal with, and being himself an amateur performer upon the instrument to which the settler was so ardently attached, thought he would change his tactics and draw his determined not-to-be host out a little, before informing him of the fact that he, too, could play the 'Arkansas Traveler,' which once being known, he rightly conjectured would be a passport to his better graces.

Traveler.—Well, friend, if I can't stay, how far is it to the next house?

Ark. Artist.—Ten miles, and you'll think them mighty long ones, too, afore you get there. I came nigh onto forgettin to tell you the big creek is up; the bridge is carried off; there's nary yearthly chance to ford it; and if yer bound to cross it, yer'll have to go about seven miles up the stream, to old Dave Lody's puncheon bridge, through one of the biggest bamboo swamps ever you see. I reckon the bridge is standin' yet; 'twas yesterday mornin, though one end had started down stream about fifteen feet, or sich a manner.

Traveler.—Friend, you seem communicative, and if it's no offence, I'd like to know what you do for a living.

Ark. Artist.—No offence on yearth, stranger; we just keep a grocery.

Traveler.—A grocery! Where, in the name of all that's mercantile, do your customers come from? Your nearest neighbor is ten miles distant.

Ark. Artist.—The fact is, me and the old woman is the best customers yet; but we 'spect these diggins will improve, and, in course, business will improve too. How'ever, we do suthing now, even. Me and the old woman took the cart t'other day, and went to town; we bort a bar'l of whiskey; and arter we come home and 'gin to count the balance on hand, we found thar warnt but one solitary picayune left; and as the old woman allus carries the puss, in course she had it. Well, I sot the bar'l agin one side of the room, and shortly arter, the old woman sez: 'Supposin you tap your end of the bar'l,' and I did; and she bought a drink and paid me a picayune. Pretty soon, I begun to get dry, and says I: 'Old woman, spozen you tap your end of the bar'l!' and she did; and then she sells me a drink; and the way that picayune has traveled back'ards and for'ards over the bung of that bar'l, is a caution to them as love 'red eye.' But, stranger, losses is apt to come with every business; and me and the old woman has lost some in the grocery line; and I'll tell you how 'twas. The boy Bill, our oldest son, he see how the licker was goin, and he didn't have nary red to jine in the retail business; so one night he crawls under the house and taps the bar'l atwixt the cracks in the puncheon floor; and I r'ally believe he's got more than me or the old woman ither; the good for nothin vagabond, to come the 'gaiff' over his nateral born parents; it's enuff to make a man sour agin all creation; that boy will be the ruination of us yet. He takes to trickery as nateral as a hungry possum to a hen roost. Now, stranger, what on yearth am I to do? He beats me and the old woman entirely.

Traveler.—It would be difficult for me to advise in regard to your son, as I have no family of my own. You say it is ten miles to the next house; the big creek is up; the bridge carried away; no possibility of fording it, and seven miles through a swamp to the only bridge in the vicinity! This is rather a gloomy prospect, particularly as the sun is just down; still my curiosity is excited, and as you have been playing only one part of the 'Arkansas Traveler' ever since my arrival, I would like to know, before I go, why you don't play the tune through.

Ark. Artist.—For one of the best reasons on yearth, old hoss—I can't do it. I haint larnt the turn of that tchune, and drat me if I believe I ever shall.

Traveler.—Give me your instrument, and I'll see if I can play the turn for you.

Ark. Artist.—Look here, my friend, do you play the turn of that tchune?

Traveler.—I believe I can.

Ark. Artist.—'Lite, 'lite, old hoss! we will find a place for you in the cabin, sure.

Old woman! (a 'halloo!' within the shantee was the first indication the traveler had of any other human being on the premises;) the stranger plays the turn of the 'Rackensack Traveler.' My friend, hitch your hoss to the 'simmon tree, or anywhere else you please. Bill 'll be here soon, and he'll take keer of him. Old woman, you call Sall and Nance up from the spring; tell Nance to go into the spring-house and cut off a good large piece of bear-steak, to brile for the stranger's supper; tell Sal to knock over a chicken or two, and get out some flour, and have some flour-doin's and chicken fixen's for the stranger. (Bill just heaves in sight, twenty-four hours earlier than he was expected a half hour before.) Bill, O Bill! there's a stranger here, and he plays the turn of the 'Rackensack Traveler;' go to the corn-crib and get a big punkin, and bring it to the house, so the stranger can have somethin to sit on, and skin a tater 'long with me and the old woman, while the gals is gettin supper; and Bill, take the hoss, and give him plenty of corn; no nubbins, Bill; then rub him down well; and then, when you come to the house, bring up a dried hide and a bar-skin for the stranger to sleep on; and then, Bill, I reckon, he'll play the turn of 'Rackensack Traveler' for us.

The punkin was brought; the taters were skinned and eaten; the turn of the 'Rackensack Traveler' was repeatedly played, to abundant edification; and the gals finally announced that supper was ready; and although instead of store-tea they had only 'saxifax-tea-doins,' without milk, yet the repast was one to be long and gratefully remembered. The traveler remained all night, and was piloted safely over 'big creek' early the next morning. Of a truth, 'music has charms to soothe the savage breast.'—Knickerbocker Magazine.

An Indian Romance.

The Philadelphia Press has a long romance about the Wyoming Valley, and a young girl, Frances Slocum, who was stolen away when very young by the Indians. A letter was received by the Slocum family, residing in Lancaster, from a Mr. Ewing of Logansport, Indiana, in which he desired to know if any of the Slocum family lived in that neighborhood. He detailed in this letter his visit to an Indian cabin, and his discovery of the long lost Frances Slocum, who had been stolen from her father's family (Mr. Jonathan Slocum) some fifty-eight years before by the Indians, and by them carried into captivity. Rev. Samuel Bowman, now assistant Bishop of Pennsylvania, interested himself very much in the matter. By his advice and assistance, the Slocum sought the little Frances sixty years after captivity, and find her at the home of the Miami Indians. They go into the cabin, where they see an Indian woman having the appearance of seventy-five years of age, painted, jewelled, and dressed like an Indian queen; nothing but her hair and colored skin indicate her origin.

By the aid of an interpreter they converse, and are satisfied that this is their long lost sister. She has forgotten her christian name and the very language of her race, though she responded to Frances, and admitted in her Indian dialect that was her name. While her brothers and sisters sat sobbing and weeping at this strange revelation, the poor Indian woman was motionless and passionless.—She had become one of another people; she had been married, and reared two daughters, both married, and living in all the glory of an Indian cabin, deerskin clothing, and cowhide head dresses.—For Indians she belonged to a rich community, owned houses, could use the rifle, bridle her own horses, mount a la Turk, whenever she desired to do so. She could sleep on the floor or on the bare earth, wrapt in her blanket, as soundly as her wealthy relatives slept in their beautiful residence in the Valley of the Wyoming. They tried to persuade her to return, but she refused to do so. She had always lived with the Indians since her capture; they had always been kind to her, and she promised to her late husband on his deathbed that she would never leave the Indian country.

WHEN WE ARE GONE.—"Generation after generation," says a fine writer, "have felt as we feel, and their lives were as active as our own. They passed away like a vapor, while Nature wore the same aspect of beauty as when her Creator commanded her to be. The heavens shall be as bright over our graves as they are now around our paths. The world will have the attractions for our offsprings yet unborn that she had once for ourselves, and that she now has for our children. Yet a little while and all this will have happened. The throbbing heart will be stilled, and we shall be at rest. Our funeral will wind its way, and the prayers will be said, and our friends will all return, and we shall be left behind in silence and darkness for the worm. And it may be for a short time we shall be spoken of, but the things of life will creep in, and our names will soon be forgotten. Days will continue to move on, and laughter and song will be heard in the room in which we died; and the eye that mourned for us will be dried and glisten again with joy; and even our children will cease to think of us, and will not remember to lisp our names. Then shall we have become, in the language of the Psalmist, 'forgotten and clean out of mind.'"

RE-UNION IN HEAVEN.—"I am fully persuaded," says Baxter, "that I shall love my friends in Heaven, and therefore know them; and this principally binds me to them on earth. If I thought I should never know them more, or love them after death, I should love them comparatively little now, as I do all other transitory things."

☞ "You can't even tell me who made the monkey for all you pretend to know so much," said an impertinent fop to a clergyman, who had reproved him for profanity. "Yes I can," said the clergyman. "Well then who did make the monkey?" "He who made you."

☞ A pretty girl and a wild horse are liable to do much mischief, for the one runs away with a fellows body, and the other away with his heart.

Mourning Customs.

All the world are acquainted with the grandeur of the Roman obsequies and funeral games. The Greeks burnt the corpses of the distinguished men with funeral feasts and the lamentation of hired weepers, though they generally displayed a less sumptuous grief and better regulated piety. The Persians burried the bodies of the dead; the Scythians ate them; the Indians enveloped them for preservation's sake in a sort of locker; the Egyptians embalmed and dried them, exhibited them on festal days, placed them at the table among their guests, guarded them as their most precious possessions and loaned and borrowed money on these strange pledges. In our time the custom of dancing at funerals is only practised in India and among some savage nations; but funeral entertainments still prevail in in many European countries. Among others the ceremony of interment is solemn and silent, which nevertheless does not interfere with the wish that all may be forgotten as speedily as possible. We observe more ostentatious rites for persons of consequence. Their carriages follow them to the graves, and some times their horses are paraded, which, having been made to fast, seem to partake of the afflictions of the occasion. The Orientals, from whom we borrow this custom, went further—they made their horses in funeral processions weep, by blowing a particular kind of powder up their nostrils.

In Italy the mourning was formerly white for women, and brown for men.—In China it is white; in Ethiopia, gray.—Each of these colors had originally its mystical signification. White is the emb em of purity; celestial blue indicates the space where the soul ranges after earth; yellow, or the the tinge of dead leaves, exhibits death as the end of autumn, gray represents the color of the earth, our common mother; and black, the funeral costume now adopted throughout Europe and America, is an allusion to the night.

In England the sovereign never wears black; he is clothed in dark purple as mourning. Till the reign of Charles VIII. white was the funeral garb in France.—The Emperor Leopold, who died in 1704, used to suffer his beard to grow in disorder during the whole period of mourning. In this he imitated the Jews. The dowager-empresses never left off weeds, and their apartments were hung with black until their death. The Chancellor of France is the only person who ever wears mourning. The brothers, nephews and cousins of popes, never wear it; the happiness of having a pope in the family is too great to allow them to be affected even by his death.

But the most remarkable of all these usages is, perhaps, that of the people of those ancient nations who dressed themselves as women when they lost their relatives, in order, it is said, that the ridicule attached to their vestments might make them ashamed of their grief.

HOW THE HOONUMAN MONKEYS KILL SNAKES.—The banyan tree is a favored habitation of these monkeys, and among its many branches they play strange antics, undisturbed by any foes excepting snakes. These reptiles are greatly dreaded by the monkeys, and with good reason. However, it is said that the monkeys kill more snakes in proportion to their own loss, and do so with a peculiarly refined cruelty. A snake may be coiled among the branches of the banyan fast asleep, when it is spied by an Hoonuman. After satisfying himself that the reptile really is sleeping, the monkey steals upon it noiselessly, grasps it by the neck, tears it from the branch, and hurries to the ground. He then runs to a flat stone, and begins to grind down the reptiles head upon it, grinning and chattering with delight at the writhings and useless struggles of the tortured snake, and occasionally inspecting his work to see how it is progressing. When he has rubbed away the poor animal's jaws, so as to deprive it of its poison fangs, he holds great rejoicings over his helpless foe, and tossing it to the young monkeys, looks complacently at its destruction.

NEW DISCOVERY IN PHOTOGRAPHY.—Galignani's Messenger (a Paris paper,) announces a discovery in photography. It consists in the discovery of an artificial light, so wonderfully luminous and so steady as to completely supply the effect of the most brilliant noontide sun in the photographic operations. The light being contained in a portable apparatus, portraits can be taken in private residences, even in the darkest room, wholly independent of the state of the atmosphere; and those parts of cathedrals or other picturesque architectural monuments where the light of the sun never penetrates, and which, in consequence, have been until now wholly shut out from the photographer, will be as accessible to the artist as any part of the exterior.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—A disastrous fire occurred at Wilkesbarre, in this State, on Tuesday morning last, consuming an entire block of buildings. The loss is estimated at $80,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—The returns from 121 counties gives Letcher, the Democratic candidate for Governor 3,234 majority. The returns from the 9th Congressional District gives Harris, the independent candidate, a majority of 700 over Skinner the regular Democratic nominee.

A SPECIMEN OF MORMON POLYGAMY.—In searching the house of Bishop Johnson charged with murder, at Salt Lake, Utah, the United States officials were not able to discover the Bishop, but they found therein his TEN WIVES. Four of these wives are sisters, and the Bishop's own neices; and he has, besides these, two sisters out of one family, and also a mother and one daughter. When will this beastly system of prostitution be broken up?

KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—According to late advices from Nebraska, it seems that the people of southern Nebraska are earnestly agitating for the annexation of so much of that Territory as lies south of the Platte river, to Kansas, so as to secure her admisson into the Union at the next session of Congress. Public sentiment in that portion of the Territory strongly favors the proposed annexation, and it was recently resolved in mass convention that Nebraska City nominate delegates to the Nebraska Constitutional Convention, which is to assemble at Wyandotte in July.

A GOOD TURN OUT.—The Johnstown Tribune states that the Rolling Mill at that place turns out a larger yield per week of Railroad iron than has ever been manufactured in the same time by any rival establishment in the Union. Three weeks ago seven hundred and twenty-two tons were rolled from Monday morning until Saturday night, and last week we understand the yield was about seven hundred tons. All this was accomplished, too, without a single extra heat. We put the Cambria Iron Works as now managed in the van of all iron enterprises this side of the Atlantic.

INDIAN WAR.—A telegraphic dispatch, dated St. Louis, May 30, says that the Overland Mail brings intelligence that the express train had just arrived from Camp Radsimiski, bringing the report that Maj. Van Horn had a fight with the Northern Camanches at the fork of the Arkansas river, on the 16th, killing fifty and taking thirty six prisoners. Two soldiers were killed and several wounded, among the latter Lieut. Lee and Capt. Smith. The letter also says that four or five hundred Texans were encamped twenty miles below the Brazos on the Indian Reserve, with the intention of attacking the Reserve Indians.

KOSSUTH.—A report is current that Kossuth is now in Sardinia, and in communication with the Hungarion troops in the Austrian army. A letter in one of the German papers further states that much agitation prevails in Hungary, and that revolutionary movements are anticipated. Something of the kind is also hinted at in the correspondence of some of the English papers, and putting these facts together, some journalists start the plausible theory that the discovery of disaffection among the Hurgarian troops, who form a large portion of the Austrian army now in Sardinia, is the real cause of hesitation, counter-marching, and almost retreat of the Austrian forces since they entered Piedmont. It is also said that there is dissension between the Austrian and Hungarian generals of that army. It seems probable that Austria will have her hands full, and will yet rue the day she took up arms against Sardinia.

☞ It is asserted that a man's finger-nails grow their entire length in four months and a half. A man living 70 years renews his nails one hundred and eighty times. Allowing a nail to be half an inch long, he has grown 7 feet and nine inches of finger nail on each finger, and on fingers and thumbs, an aggregate of 77 feet and 6 inches.

☞ A negro woman fell, headforemost, into a well 130 feet deep a few days since, at Montgomery, Alabama. In the descent her head struck the stone wall, knocking a quantity of the masonary out of place, her head, however, was but slightly bruised. She was quite cheerful when drawn out. The only damage done was to the stone wall!

☞ Oh, Doctor, run to our house as quick as ever you kin! Dick's got the measels from eend to eend, and Tom turned a summersett over the fodder stack, and smashed his nose all to flinders. Sam's got the picken chox, and mother's got the biggist kind o' fit, and dad's drunk the worst sort, and—and the way I'm tired is orful!

A Rich Scene.

An occurrence took place last week, in this city, says the New York correspondent of the Boston Ledger, that caused no little merriment, and any amount of chagrin. A large and miscellaneous assortment of trunks, packages, boxes, etc., had accumulated at the Adams Express Co.'s office, which the agent was desirous of cleaning out:—A very large crowd gathered, and the bidding was very animated, as it was the first sell of the kind that had taken place.—As the bidders became possessors, the excitement grew intense, and a rush would be made expecting to see the owner open his parcel. In most instances the buyer would hold on, and keep the satisfaction of his bargain to himself; but occasionally an opening would occur, either to create a good laugh or dissatisfaction among the crowd. One of the first to make his purchase was a party who had a small package nicely sealed, which, on opening it, proved to be a small gold watch and chain, for which he paid four dollars and a half. This was a perfect stool, for all similar packages were run up to almost incredible amounts. After a hot contest, a parcel similar in size was purchased by a gentleman for $13 50, who with eagerness opened it, exposing to the crowd a small daguerreotype of a sentimental young gent, which originally cost about fifty cents. Two mysterious packages were sold at seven dollars and fifty cents each, which, on being opened, contained each two bottles of Dr. James', whose sands of life have nearly run out, and many even more ludicrous bargains. One party expended something over one hundred dollars, obtaining for it about four dollars in value, and I am told he has sued the firm for restoration.

THOMAS BURNSIDE—JAMES PETRIKEN—JAMES T. HALE.—The elder Judge Burnside presided in one of the Courts of Pennsylvania when the memorable case of Parsons vs. Parsons was on trial. James Petriken, Esq., was one of the counsel, assisted by James T. Hale, Esq. Hale was speaking, and having made a strong point, which the Court challenged, he said that he could sustain it by citation of cases from the books, but he had left them at his office close by.

"Why did you not bring your books here?" asked the Judge.

"Because I considered the point so plain as not to need the support of other cases; but I will step over and get the books."

As Mr. Hale left the house the Judge, in a pet, said: "That man reminds me of a carpenter who came to work for me, and left all his tools at home. The Court has forgotten more law than that young man knows."

"That," said Mr. Petriken, "is just what we complain of—that your Honor has forgotten too much!"

The case of Parsons vs. Parsons was brought by one brother against another, for the purpose of breaking their father's will, which cut off Abraham, the elder brother, without a cent, giving all the property to Samuel, the younger. This Samuel was a stout, brond-shouldered Pennsylvania farmer, well-dressed and portly, showing himself to be somebody; while Abraham was a lank, lean, ill-favored man, with thin and thread-bare clothes in bad weather.—Mr. Petriken, counsel for poor Abraham, asked a witness, "what is the relative wealth of the two brothers?"

The opposing lawyer jumped up and objected to the question. "It was of no consequence who was richer or who was poorer; it was a question of law."

Petriken saw that the question would not be allowed, and calling out to his client, said "Abraham, stand up by the side of Samuel."

Abraham planted his thin figure, in shabby cloths, by the side of the corpulent, well dressed brother, and Petriken cried out to the jury, "Now compare the parties." The effect was instantaneous and complete, and far better for Abraham than any evidence of witnesses as to the amount of his property. The jury gave him a verdict; and, law or no law, he got half of his father's property.—Harper's Magazine.

ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SUICIDE.—The Harrisburg Patriot of Tuesday has the following: "Middletown was the scene of a most distressing tragedy yesterday afternoon. Dr. Barr, Coroner, received a dispatch to come down speedily, and obeyed the summons. The circumstances of the tragedy are these: A man named Annanias Nichols, who has been in the employ of Edward Fisher for a number of years, was in the stable when Mr. Fisher went there to call him to dinner. As Mr. F. turned to go towards the house, Nichols started after him with a large stick, which he had been using in mixing feed for the horses, striking Mr. Fisher several severe blows over the head, making horrible gashes. Mr. F. retreated, followed by Nichols, who, however, did not at that time again attack him; but while he was in a stooping posture, washing the blood off his head, Nichols raised the club to deal another deadly blow. Mrs. Fisher, who had been confined to her room for some time by severe indisposition, was alarmed by the children exclaiming, "Annanias is killing Pap!" She rushed to the window and started to Mr. Fisher, when Nichols immediately dropped the club, and, rushing into the kitchen, seized a butcher knife. He then ran into Mr. Fisher's woods, near the Swatara, where he plunged the knife into his abdomen, and ran into the stream. From this he came out, again inflicted wounds with the knife, and again rushing into the stream, drowned himself.

"The verdict of the Coroner's jury was, that the man Nichols had come to his death by the means above related, during a temporary fit of insanity."

SUGGESTION FROM A LADY.—A lady correspondent advises on the subject of wearing hoops and lifting up dresses, says:—"The hoops should be near together, say two or three inches apart, and come to within as many inches of the feet or the bottom of the dress. A word about the management of dress In the first place, in going up stairs you need only lift the front of your dress, and in descending, the back part of your skirts. The front part of your dress can by no effort be soiled in descending, neither can the back part, by ascending a pair of stairs. Do, therefore, have a reform in this to my mind immodest habit you have heedlessly gotten into, of dragging your dress behind you, in going down stairs, and lifting it up in front instead.

TOMATOES.—The following method of preparing tomatoes for the table, we are assured by one who has made the experiment, is superior to anything yet discovered for the preparation of that excellent vegetable:

Take good ripe tomatoes, cut them in slices, and sprink over them finely pulverized white sugar, and then add claret wine sufficient to cover them. Tomatoes are sometimes prepared in this way with diluted vinegar, but the claret wine imparts to them a richer and more pleasant flavor, more nearly resembling the strawberry than anything else.

EDUCATION AND FIGHTING.—By a law of Prussia, every child between the ages of seven and fourteen is required to go to school and to learn to read and write. In 1815 there were but two persons in a hundred who could neither read nor write 2,328,000 children of the 2,900,000 between seven and fourteen years attend school. In the standing army of 126,000 but two soldiers are unable to read. In case of her taking part in the war, Prussia can bring into the field 300,000 men, in one sense the best educated military force in the world.

Fight with a Rattlesnake.

Near Peoria, Ill., a man was fixing an old cistern, and it seems there was a piece of plank with one end partially imbedded in the earth, that somewhat incommoded him, so seizing it, with some exertion, he pulled it out and threw it to the top. What was his horor and surprise at the next moment, to find that he had unearthed an enormous rattlesnake, and himself without a weapon in his hand.

As the cister was round, and only about five feet in diameter, he could not jump out, and the snake, bristling with anger, and rattling defiance, was ready for battle. His screams brought his wife to the scene, but she was so overcome with fright that she became powerless to render any assistance. The snake in the meantime, had commenced the fight, making repeated springs at him, but fortunately he managed, on each occassion, to hit him upon the head with his boot, without receiving a bite, the snake all the time becoming more defiant and enraged. During the whole scene, which lasted several minutes, the man did not lose his presence of mind, but, watching his chance, made several frantic efforts to jump bodily from this seemingly pit of destruction. At the last trial, he fortunately grasped a brick, which gave way with him, and remained in his hand, as he again stood fronting his enemy

After a few more kicks, and watching his opportunity, he fired it, making probably one of the best shots on record, for it struck the snake on the head, and between the one sent and the wall, he became a "pretty well used up esrpint" Weak and exhausted, our hero, by the assistance of his wife, was enabled to clime from the pit, but when once more upon the earth he fainted away, and it was some time before he recovered. For several succeeding days he was quite unwell, owing, probably, to the poisonous effluvia inhaled, while his desperate exercise in the encounter rendered him exceedingly lame. The snake was afterwards taken from the cistern, when it was found to measure seven feet in length, and contained thirteen rattles! The latter have been preserved, and are placed in Shoaff's Museum for exhibition.

HARD TIMES OUT WEST.—The Eddyville (Iowa) Commercial says;

It is useless to deny or attempt to conceal the fact. This region of the country is destitute of the necessaries of life. The stock of food for man and beast is about exhausted. There is perhaps, corn enough to feed those who are unable to buy flour; but they have not the means to buy corn. It is in the hands of a few persons, and they will only sell for cash at a dollar a bushel. Not one third of those who need to buy corn have the dollar, or any means of getting it; for the money like the corn, is out of the reach of the destitute. We are no panic maker, of this we feel certain and speak advisibly, that in thirty days from this time, unless those who have a surplus agree to part, with it, on time, at a fair price, it will be distributed and carried away by bands of desperate men, to feed their starving families. This sounds terribly; but it is too near the truth, and men will not suffer families to starve, when food can be procured by going and taking it.

If the speculators who are hoarding up breadstuffs here, in the hope of obtaining exorbitant prices for them, owing to the European war, would but send a few thousand barrels of flour to these starving people, they (the speculators) would feel much better after it, than if they had "realized and put all their money in a bank. Try it, just for once.

A JUMPING MATCH FOR FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS.—A great jumping match came off at Avon, New York on Thursday of last week for $500 The Livingston Republican gives an account of it as follows: About two months ago the match was made, the jumping to be done at Avon, and 40 feet the distance. This did not come off, but soon after, the match first above noticed was made. The man produced for jumping at both places is a youg man of about 22 years of age, by the name of Robert Way, and who is undoubtedly the greatest jumper of this or any other country. This wager was $250 a side, on thirty-seven feet at three standing jumps on perfectly lever ground, which he did with ease, and it was the opinion of all present that he could have cleared two or three feet more had he desired. Way jumps with great apparent ease, and strikes his marks with utmost precision, seeming to make at every jump whatever distance he names. In addition to the above he cleared twenty-seven feet and one inch at two standing jumps—and at one single jump made sixteen feet. This we believe, is the tallest jumping on record Thirty-three and thirty-four feet is the most ever accomplished, and has ever been considered as the most that could be done on level ground, and standing.

A NEGRO ACTING AS PASTOR FOR WHITE PEOPLE.—On Lynn Creek, Giles county, Tennessee, there is a Hardshell Baptist Church, supported by a number of wealthy communicants, who for several years past have had for their regular pastor a negro named George—known as "Bentley's Old George" and belonging to one Matthew Bentley. George is said to be a most excellent man, and a good preacher. Sometime ago, he had a noted public discussion lasting four days, with a white preacher, on the subject of Baptism, from which the white man is said to have come off "second best."—The Church wants to buy George, but he is unwilling to be sold out of his master's family, and is withal a regular Southern, Pro Slavery parson. George is the "preacher in charge" of a large congregation, nearly all of whom are Slaveholders and who pay him a salary of $600 or $700 for his pastoral service.

ANOTHER TORNADO.—A special dispatch to the St. Louis Republican, May 27th, from Jacksonville, Morgan county, Illinois, states that yesterday, a most violent and destructive tornado swept over the country, about half a mile south of the city, desolating everything that lay in its path.

Sixteen persons were killed, while a large number were severely wounded, a portion of whom cannot recover.

Many houses and other buildings were torn into atoms by the fury of the whirlwind, others were overturned, and still more unroofed, and otherwise shattered by the blast.

The cattle in fields were killed in great numbers, and crops destroyed. The damage to propety of all kinds can hardly be estimated.

SHOT IN THE FLOCK.—We wonder if the following Paixhan shot, from the "Notes from the Plymouth Pulpit," by Henry Ward Beecher, hits any body in all this region round about?—Mr Beecher said:—"There are sitting before me in this congregation now, two hundred men, who stuff their Sundays full of what they call religion, and go out on Mondays to catch their brother by the throat, saying: 'Pay me that thou owest; it's Monday now, and you needn't think because we sat crying together yesterday, over our Savior's sufferins and love, that I am going to let you off from that debt, if it ruin you to pay it now.'"

THE DIVISION OF CALIFORNIA.—The telegraph brings information that a bill for the division of the State of California, has passed both branches of the Legislature, and gone to the Governor for his signature. This bill is entitled "An Act granting the consent of the Legislature to the formation of a different government from the Southern counties of the State," and undoubtedly looks to the erection of the territory thus set off, into an independent State. The name proposed to be given to it is the "Territory of Colorado."

ALL ABOUT SHOES!

Gentlemen are Requested not to Read this

We do not boast of Auction Shoes
At shillings six a pair,
For sure no lady would them choose
That wants a shoe to wear.

Now very much we feel inclin'd
Such Quirers to expose,
They are not good, and you will find
Them bursting round the toes.

Such ill-made Shoes you could not wear
We often with them meet;
Just made to sell, they rip and tear
When walking in the street.

A lady passing by one day
Was caused a deal of trouble,
Superbly dress'd in garments gay
And Shoes not worth a bubble.

New pair of Shoes, and good ones too,
As the dear lady thought,
Until her feet protruding though
Proclaimed them good for naught.

We pay the prices for our work
To have it honest made,
To worthy men who are in truth
The masters of their trade.

And we can boast of extra nice
Of beautiful and neat,
Of fairy Shoes at fairest price
To decorate the feet.

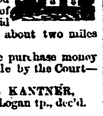
ORPHANS' COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Blair county, there will be offered at public vendue or outcry, on the premises, in Logan township, said county, at 10 o'clock A. M., on SATURDAY, July 2d, 1859,

A TRACT OF LAND,

containing about SIXTY ACRES, (the exact quantity not known,) about half of it cleared and under fence—the balance WOOD LAND—having thereon erected a two-story LOG HOUSE, a one-and-a-half-story LOG HOUSE, and other buildings, with a fine ORCHARD of good Fruit on the place. Two large Springs of most excellent water on the farm. Said Land being situated in Logan township, about two miles from the borough of Altoona.



TERMS OF SALE.—The whole of the purchase money to be paid on the confirmation of the sale by the Court—on the first day of July Term, 1859.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the mud.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.

Altoona, May 26-5m JACOB SNYDER.

RED LION HOTEL,

ALTOONA, BLAIR COUNTY, PA.

This old established and popular HOTEL, located nearly opposite the place of stopping the passenger cars in Altoona, has passed into the hands of the present proprietor.—Long experience in the business warrants me in assuring the travelling public that no pains will be spared to render guests as comfortable as possible while sojourning under my roof.

The TABLE will constantly be supplied with the very best the market affords.

The BAR will be found to contain an excellent assortment of LIQUORS of all kinds, including that choice beverage LAGER BEER.

The STABLE is in charge of an excellent and experienced Ostler.

The proprietor hopes, by his long experience in the business and the facilities at his command, to make the Red Lion in all respects a first class Hotel. The business of the Hotel will be under my own personal supervision. A liberal share of public patronage is kindly solicited.

JOHN W. SCHWEIGERT, Proprietor.

PIKE'S PEAK NO MORE! BUT the great rush now is to the

Altoona Restaurant and Lager Beer Saloon,

Under Keystone Hall, corner of Annie and Virginia Streets.

This house is new, and the basement fitted up specially for the purpose of a first-class Restaurant and Saloon, and the proprietor having had many years experience in the business, will keep constantly on hand the best LAGER BEER that can be found this side of the Atlantic, and endeavors to supply the wants of the hungry. He will also keep choice SEGARS and the best of TOBACCO. He invites all his old friends and the public generally to give him a call at his new Restaurant and Saloon.

CAUTION—SAW-MILL TO LET.—All persons are hereby notified not to purchase, or in any way meddle with any Lumber, made by Anthony Swires, John R. Smith or James Swires. They are now cutting my trees and making the lumber on my Mill without my consent. The law will be enforced against them and all who trade them by purchase or otherwise. The U. S. Marshal gave me possession of the Mill by virtue of his sale, and they have since forcibly taken possession of it.

I wish to let for a money rent or on the shares, a first-rate Steam Circular SAW-MILL seven miles from Altoona, with a large quantity of timber surrounding it. It is not the mill alluded to above.

Peoples' Convention—Preparatory Meeting.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED AT A PEOPLES' MEETING IN THE COURT HOUSE IN HOLLIDAYSBURG, ON THE 3D DAY OF MAY, 1859.

"Resolved, That in order to secure concert of action in the approaching election campaign, the two existing Committees of the American and Republican parties of this county, be requested to meet together as soon as may be convenient, and issue a call for a County Convention to nominate a County Ticket on behalf of the Peoples Party, and that power is hereby given them to fix the basis of representation in said Convention and the time for its meeting."

In pursuance of the above resolution, the several members of said Committees are hereby requested to meet at the Court House, in Hollidaysburg, at 1 o'clock P. M, on Friday the 10th day of June, 1859, to attend to the duties assigned them.

A BUCKS COUNTY FATHER'S ADVICE TO HIS SON.—The following, which we find in the Harrisburg Patriot and Union, is suitable for young men of all localities, therefore we give it a place among our locals:

"Bob, you are about leaving home for strange parts. You're going to throw me out of the game and go it alone. The odds is agin you; Bob, but remember always that industry and perseverence are the winning cards; they are the "bowers." Book larning and all that sort of thing will do to fill up with, like small trumps, but you must have the bowers to back 'em, else they ain't worth shucks. If luck runs agin you pretty strong, don't cave in and look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, but hold your head up and make believe you're flush of trumps; they won't play so hard agin you. I've lived and traveled around some, Bob, and I've found out that as soon as folks thought you held a weak hand, they'd all buck agin you strong. So, when you're sorter weak, keep on a bold front, but play cautious; be satisfied with a p'int. Many's the hand I've seen euchred 'cause they played for too much. Keep your eyes well skinned, Bob; don't let 'em "nig" on you! Recollect the game lays as much with the head as with hands. Be temperate; never get drunk, for then no matter how good your hand, you won't know how to play it; both bowers and the ace won't save you, for there's sartin to be a "misdeal" or something wrong. And another thing, Bob, (this was spoken in a low tone,) don't go too much after women; queens is kinder poor cards; the more you have of 'em the worse for you; you might have three, and nary trump. I don't say discard 'em all; if you get hold of one that's a trump, it's all good, and there's sartin to be one out of four. And, above all, Bob, be honest; never take a man's trick wot don't belong to you, nor "slip" cards or "nig," for then you can't look your man in the face, and when that's the case there's no fun in the game; its regular "cut throat." So now, Bob, farewell, remember wot I tell you, and you'll be sure to win, and if you don't, sarves you right if you get "SKUNKED."

☞ The Lewistown Democrat copies the edict of the R. S. B. in relation to the cases of Esquire Good and Dr. Roush, together with our Editorial remarks and adds:—

We say "amen" to the commisseration kindly tendered by our cotemporaries of the Tribune to the two excommunicated individuals, and especially as the perfidiousness of the one was the result of an acquaintance with a young lady of this place, against whose accomplished manners and amiable qualities his susceptible heart was not "fire proof." He, however, has one proud consolation, and that is, that although he has been unmercifully excommunicated from Club 459, R. S. B., he now presides with honor and dignity over a Good Club, which, although it now numbers but two members, will no doubt "in the course of human events" be multiplied exceedingly. So mote it be.

RELIGIOUS.—Last week we announced that Bishop Simpson, of Pittsburgh, would preach in the Methedist Church in this place, on Sabbath next, and we are pleased to state this week that the announcement will certainly be met at that time by the Bishop, unless something important and unforeseen should occur to prevent. It is possible also that other Bishops may be present, as they are now in session at Pittsburgh, and those who live in the East may stop at this point, over Sunday, on their way home.

Revs. Alfred Cookman and Dr. Bartine, who have been invited, have answered that they can not be present on this occasion, but will visit this place during the summer.

It is the intention of the Trustees of the Church to take up a subscription, on the occasion of the visit of Bishop Simpson, to pay off the debt now hanging over the church, and it is to be hoped that they may be successful.

HEAVY RAINS.—On Sunday evening and Monday last, we were visited by a succession of heavy showers of rain, interspersed with small hail stones. The hail did no damage, serving only to impart a coolness, truly refreshing, to the atmosphere. The rain caused vegetation, which was drooping, to look up and take a fresh start.

TEARING DOWN BILLS.—Can not something be done to put a stop to the practice of tearing down handbills? We believe we have a Borough Ordinance imposing a fine of $10 upon any person found guilty of tearing down, defacing, or in any way injuring a handbill or poster within ten days after the time it is put up; but so far as we have been able to learn, it is a dead letter, not a single instance being found on record wherein a person has been indicted under it, notwithstanding hundreds, indeed we might say thousands, of handbills have been torn down or defaced, within the time prescribed by the Ordinance, since the enactment thereof, in open day light at that; and yet no notice has been taken of it. Can it be that our vigilant Constable has never been able to lay his eyes upon a scoundrel while thus injuring his neighbor's property? And must this state of things continue? A man might almost as well throw his money in the fire as expend it for handbills to post up in this place at the present time. We hope that an example may soon be made of some one of the villains who make it their business to tear down all the bills that come in their way; and we feel assured that our hopes are not in vain. The practice has become so much of a nuisance that it must be abated and some men who are not expecting it will be compelled to shell out an X spot very suddenly, or serve out a term in the "Lock Up," some of these days. Parents should warn their children not to indulge in the habit, and thereby save themselves cost and trouble. The law must be enforced, if not by those who should do it, it will be by those who suffer from the neglect of the officers.

OUGHT TO BE PUNISHED.—Affidavits were taken in this place the other day, proving that a certain woman in Warriorsmark Valley had cut up and fried out the fat of an old sheep, which had died from disease, and mixed part of it with stuff which she sold as lard to one of our merchants, and part of which she made candles of, and sold to another merchant. We forbear giving names at present, as it is most likely that her conduct will undergo a legal investigation. We may be allowed to state, however, that the husband of this same creature says she cooked for his dinner two or three chickens which had fallen into a water-vessel at the barn, and lain there so long that the feathers dropped off when he lifted the fowls out with the dung-hook!

From the same paper we learn that the tailor shop of Wm. Port, in that place, was entered on Tuesday night of last week, by means of a false key, and a suit of clothes, two pair of pants and a vest stolen therefrom. On the same night the shoemaker shop of Mr. Hagg was entered and robbed of several pairs of boots. A lot of tinware was stolen from the foundry and machine shop of John Forbes.——A man by the name of Bennett was arrested and sent to jail for whipping his wife and child—now about two months old—and threatennig to kill wife, child, mother-in-law, and other kindred.

BLAIR COUNTY INSURANCE COMPANY.—Unmistakeably it is the duty of every man who owns a house, or any amount of merchandise or household property, to have it insured. It is a duty he owes to his creditors, if he has any, but more especially does he owe it to his family. After being fully convinced that it is a duty, and ascertaining that every provident man in the community is fully insured, the next consideration is a safe company in which to secure a return of your losses in case of fire. In looking for such a company, the citizens of this or any other community cannot find a safer one than the Blair County Mutual Fire Insurance Company. It would appear almost useless for us to say anything in favor of this well established Company, now fully grounded in public confidence. Its managers are the best business men in the county, its capital is far beyond all its risks, and in every instance losses are met promptly and satisfactorily. Our young friend D. T. Caldwell, at the Banking House of Wm. M. Lloyd & Co., is the agent of the Company in this place, who will take pleasure in giving all information desired, and attend promptly to surveying premises and securing policies for those wishing to insure.

MAD DOG EXCITEMENT.—On Sunday afternoon, the cry of "mad dog" caused considerable excitement among the people who occupy the row of houses below the Methodist church, on Emma street. A dog belonging to Mr. M. Urick was observed on the street, behaving in rather a curious manner, snapping at everything which came in his way, and exhibiting other unmistakable symptoms of hydrophobia. Mr. R. B. Taylor and his rifle were sent for, and, after a chase, the dog was shot in the kitchen of one of the houses, where he had taken rufuge beffind the stove. If we have a Dog Law in this place, it is time it was put into effect, as the country is full of mad dogs. Almost every paper we pick up contains a notice of mad dogs having been seen or killed in their neighborhood.—There are about three or four hundred more dogs in this place than the security of their owners or the welfare of the community demands. We should like to hear of measures being adopted by which the cancellation of the number mentioned could be speedily effected.

GOOD RYE.—William Green, of Logan township, left in our office, on Monday last, six stalks of Rye, the united length of which is forty-two feet. These stalks were not selected from different parts of the field, but stood in one cluster. He says that he has five acres of rye in the field from which these stalks were pulled, and there is scarcely two inches difference in the height of any of it. We have read accounts of taller stalks, in other parts of the State, but think this very good for Tuckahoe valley. His field would be a nice place to hide in if the "Ingins" were about.

BISHOP AMES.—Bishop Ames, of the M. E. Church, who has been sojourning in this place for several days past, preached in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning last. He is a large portly looking gentleman, and speaks with great ease and coolness. He makes no display of oratory and yet his style is captivating, holding in close attention every hearer.—To withdraw your attention from him, if but for one minute, is to loose a beautiful comparison, a sublime thought, or an item of information.—As a logician we have never heard his equal.

SHALL WE HAVE A PIC NIC?—The question is, shall we have a pic nic this season? We believe that there has not been one gotten up by either the young or old folks of the place this spring, and we think it would be too bad to let the beautiful weather of June pass unimproved. A friend has requested us to suggest the idea of getting up a pic nic party, to consist of twenty-five or more couple, (the number mentioned being requisite to obtain excursion tickets) to proceed to Spruce Creek station, and from thence to a grove in the vicinity. He is well acquainted with the locality and offers to be the pilot of the company, and we can vouch for his fitness to fill that station. Are there not twenty-five couple, married or single, in the place, who will agree to lay aside the cares of busy life and devote one day to recreation and amusement? We think there should be fifty. The streams in the vicinity of the place mentioned abound with fish, and the woods with game, thus affording those whose inclinations would lead them to adopt either mode of passing the day an opportunity of doing so.—Shall we not have a pic nic? That's the question.

☞ The Pittsburgh Evening Chronicle, of the 27th inst., says:—The following letter from a former clerk in a store in Market street, and subsequently a graduate of Duff's Mercantile College, Pittsburgh, indicates the preference given to students of that institution in distant parts of the country:

NEW ORLEANS, March 18, 1859.

Mr. P. Duff, Merchant's College, Pittsburgh:

* * * I am keeping books in this city at a salary of four thousand dollars per annum.—The merchants of the Crescent City pay liberally for efficient service. I can command almost any salary in the Counting Room, as a Book Keeper, but as soon as I make a good business acquaintance, I intend to resume the practice of law.

Very respectfully,
JAMES B. ANDERSON.

DON'T NEGLECT A COUGH.—Of all the diseases to which we are exposed, there is none more deserving of our immediate attention, than what is usually termed a "cough or cold," for the reason that if not arrested, they are apt to run into some fixed disease of some of the air passages, or pulmonary tissues, ending in consumption, or incurable bronchitis. The way to prevent this, is to get a bottle of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup, made by that gentleman, at his great drug and medicine store, Pittsburg, Pa. The preparation of Dr. Keyser has received the recommendation of hosts of respectable persons in Pittsburg, where it is made, and will not fail to cure most incipient cases of pulmonary diseases. Sold here by G. W. Kessler.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The Board of Managers of the Agricultural Society met in Hollidaysburg on Friday last. The Standard says there was considerable difference of opinion in regard to the place for holding the next Fair, which was not decided upon. A committee was appointed to receive definite proposals from those localities desiring it, and report to the Board of Managers on the 11th of June next. Now is the time for the business men and citizens of Altoona to say whether they wish it held at this place.

READ IT.—Read Fettinger's advertisement in another column and learn where you may obtain any one of the popular weekly papers of the day, the best daily papers, all the monthly publications, school books, blank books, stationary, pens, ink, &c., &c.

☞ The Sabbath School Association, of Altoona, will meet in the lecture room of the Lutheran Church, on to-morrow (Friday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance of the members, and all those who feel interested in the cause, is desired.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

The great standard medicines of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervous System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant. It will cure, WITHOUT FAIL, the most severe and long-standing

Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of Confirmed Consumption.

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe Diarrhœa proceeding from COLD IN THE BOWELS.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & Co., No. 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle. The signature of C. M. JACKSON will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

In the Almanac published annually by the proprietors, called EVERYBODY'S ALMANAC, you will find testimony and commendatory notices from all parts of the country. These Almanacs are given away by all our agents.

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Persons laboring under this distressing malady will find Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy ever discovered for curing Epilepsy or Falling Fits. These Pills possess a specific action on the nervous system; and although prepared especially for the purpose of curing Fits, they will be found of especial benefit to all persons afflicted with weak nerves, or whose nervous system has been prostrated or shattered from any cause whatever. The dyspeptic patient, whose stomach has not lost the power of duly converting food into a life sustaining element, is relieved by a single course of the extraordinary Pills. The gastric fluid re-acquires its solvent power, and the crude nutriment which was a load and a burden to the sufferer, while his digestive organization was paralyzed and unstrung, becomes under the wholesome revolution created in the system, the basis of strength, activity, and health.

Sent to any part of the country by mail, free of postage. Address Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. Price—one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $24.

WORMS! WORMS!

☞ A great many learned treatises have been written, explaining the origin of, and classifying the worms generated in the human system. Scarcely any topic of medical science has elicited more acute observation and profound research; and yet physicians are very much divided in opinion on the subject. It must be admitted, however, that, after all, a mode of expelling these worms, and purifying the body from their presence, is of more value than the wisest disquisitions as to the origin. The expelling agent has at length been found—Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros. is the much sought after specific, and has already superseded all other worm medicines its efficacy being universally acknowledged by medical practitioners.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Bites, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

Principal Depot, 165 Chambers street, New York.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and delicate diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess and removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, price one dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION!

These Pills should not be taken by females during the first three months of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada,
JOB MOSES, (late I. C. Baldwin & Co.,)
Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1.00 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle, containing 50 Pills, by return mail.

TOOTHACHE.

This disease can be cured by DR. KEYSER'S TOOTHACHE REMEDY, prepared by him in Pittsburgh, Pa., which is put up in bottles and sold at 25 cents each. It is an excellent medicine, when diluted, for spongy and tender gums, and is worth ten times its price to all who need it. Sold here by G. W. Kessler. [Dec. 9, 1858-1y.

WIGS—WIGS—WIGS.

BATCHELOR'S WIGS AND TOUPEES surpass all.—They are elegant, light, easy and durable.

Fitting to a charm—no turning up behind—no shrinking off the head; indeed, this is the only Establishment where these things are properly understood and made.

In this place, on Tuesday evening last, at the house of Mr. Daniel Laughman, by Rev. A. B. Clark, Mr. WM. J. E. BISHOP, of Harrisburg, formerly of Gettysburg, to Miss HALLIE E. JONES, of Harrisburg.

"Oh! married love!—each heart shall own,
Where two congenial souls unite,
Thy golden chains inlaid with down,
Thy lamp with heaven's own splendor bright."

DIED.

In this place, on Friday, the 27th ult., Mrs. ELIZABETH KEFF. She had for many years before her death been a consistent and esteemed member of the Presbyterian Church. For months before her death she had been a great sufferer. She patiently bore her afflictions, yet was anxious to go and be with Christ, whenever it might be the Father's will to call her.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Bilious and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful remedy has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdues inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality. This it does by equalizing the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflamation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Fits, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs, and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT. is no CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the circulation by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TRIED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.—An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.
J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left. G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit. C. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR NEURALGIA of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.
T. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD TESTIFY, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S Antiphlogistic Salt. Price, One Dollar. Chronic Package, $2.50.

D. C. TAYLOR, & CO.,
Gen. Agents, 202 Dock St. Phila.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT IS FOR SALE in Altoona, by A. Roush; Geo. A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg, and by all enterprising druggists wherever the "Tribune" is read. As it is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent physician, no one should fail to try the Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions, see circular.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in
